

Amy Li

February 8, 1964 - March 22, 2020

This is a difficult time for the family of Amy as well as for her friends, made worse with the social distancing being in forced and gathering of no more than 10. Since families can not have closure as usual you can provide support and encouragement to all by leaving condolences or by sharing special memories and photos. This would be a wonderful way to remember Amy's life.

Amy Li, 56, died Sunday, March 22, 2020, at her home in Temecula, California. She was born on February 8th in Zia Mushi, China and raised by her parents whom were prestigious doctors. She is also survived by her son, Patrick and two sisters.

She moved to the United States knowing zero English with her 18-month-old son Patrick. She was able to earn a double master's degree in Business and Information Science and served the Medical Society for over 25 years. She became a strategic planning committee member for the American Medical Library Association developing policies throughout the United States for three years. She was also very proud of her son's accomplishment of becoming a physician with his PhD.

Her special interests: American History, Literature Arts and music. She loved to travel, enjoyed ice skating and playing the violin in her younger age. Most importantly, she always loved people and developing lasting friendships with people from all over.

Her private services will be held virtually on April 2, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. In lieu of flowers, donations can be sent to ALS Association, Golden West Chapter
