“ My Uncle, it took me some time to write something because I couldn't gather my words. You will truly be missed. Your great nephew Brandon and I will definitely forever cherish that we were able to spend Thanksgiving with you because we didn't know that would be our final goodbye. I'll let you know when Brandon has passed you in height. I will make sure to get on my daddy and Auntie Cindy every football season about your Patriots even though I'm a Raider to the core. I want you to know that we got Paulie and Auntie Cindy, so no need to worry. R.I.Paradise my Uncle. We love you, Brandy and Brandon

“ Mr. Fowler..aka DOM, you will truly be missed. I know you would tell me "It's life" and I know you're in a better place where you're no longer in pain, but you really were an amazing Boss, Mentor and Father Figure..You may have not known but your kind words, knowledge and chocolates always made my bad days better. Your love for my children was the best, Thank You because they didn't have a Grandfather near them. Juliana said she will send a note with a balloon to heaven for you. Paul, I'm sorry I didn't get to say goodbye but know that we love you and miss you very much. I know you're guarding the gates of Heaven..until we meet again. Semper Fidelis, RIP Marine.

“ I will always remember Paul for his wonderful smile and love of sweets. He never turned down anything sweet. As a matter of fact, before he would leave my house he would remind Cindy that he liked sweets. Paul was a true fighter and he fought a good fight! No more pain, just a peace that surpasses all understanding. I pray that my little sister Cindy, along with Paul II and Paul's brothers and sisters find peace and comfort in knowing that Paul was indeed a great man and that he will be missed. Love always, Sister/Sister-in-law Deborah Brown

“ We're thankful for Paul's 32 years of love, dedication and devotion to our sister Cynthia and nephew Paulie. We will miss him coming to our home in San Diego for our monthly lunches and holiday dinners. Although we didn't know it would be the last holiday meal that we would share together, we are very thankful that Paul was able to spend Thanksgiving with us. Even though his appetite was not as big as usual, he enjoyed the meal and as usual took doggie bags home so that he would have leftovers for later. We will miss watching the football games together and the lively debates during lunch or dinner regarding Paul's Patriots, Cindy's Cowboys and the Raiders Nation. We were blessed to share a lot of these moments, lunches and dinners together over the years and for that I am thankful.

Rest in Paradise Our Brother-in-Love
