Bob was born in South Plainfield New Jersey on November 20, 1955. Bobby had a fun childhood living close to his cousins and they considered him as a brother.

Bobby or Big Lou or Lewis or several other nicknames depending on who you were or when you knew him was known to all as a hard working man. He started working caddying for his uncle Johnny at age 12. By his early 20s he was working at Turf Paradise/Sarival Farm falling in love with the horses. His career in horses continued and in 1992 he joined Budweiser as a handler and raising the Clydesdales at Warm Springs Ranch. His passion besides working and horses were fishing, golf, bowling and just being outside with friends joking and laughing. Budweiser and those beautiful Clydesdales brought him his other love Kendra.

Bobby and Kendra met while he was helping on a traveling hitch. They married June 26th 1999. They just celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary this last June.
